

Total number of printed pages— 2

IX. VI-VII-DT.28

PSYCHOLOGY

1997

Second Paper

Full Marks— 200

Time : Three hours

The figures in the margin indicate full marks for the questions.

Answer question No. 1 and any five from the rest.

1. Write brief notes on any four of the following questions :

10×4=40

- (a) Nature of person perception
- (b) Job analysis
- (c) Gestalt psychology
- (d) Percentile and percentile rank
- (e) Normal probability curve
- (f) Schizophrenia

2. Point out the similarities and differences between the concepts of physics and psychophysics. Make use of a psychophysical method to study visual illusion.

12+20=32

Contd.

3. Write an account of the two-factor theory of intelligence. Do you consider it an adequate theory? Discuss. 25+7=32
4. Demonstrate your familiarity with a projective test of personality. 32
5. What, according to Freud, are the stages of development of infantile and childhood personality and what are their characteristics and significance? 7+25=32
6. Who are adolescents? Why is adolescence considered a turbulent period of growth and development? Provide some helpful hints to adolescents to face problems at this period. 6+13+13=32
7. Why are some illnesses called psychosomatic? Consider gastric ulcer (or asthma) as a psychosomatic illness and provide whatever psychological assistance can be offered to those suffering from any of the said illnesses. 7+25=32
8. What is personnel selection? Spell out how can psychological tests be utilised in the candidate selection procedure of a tea (or oil) company of your region. 5+27=32
9. Give an account of the steps you would like to venture upon in constructing and standardizing a group test of intelligence for school students. 32